In this mesmerizing fiction debut, Italian American women and girls spin their culture's lore to enliven a dying steel town. Even a wrecking ball is no match for the legend of Giovanna's green thumb in the title story. Quirky and profound, Paola Corso's magical leaps reveal the poetry of these women's lives.

"Captivating storytelling in the tradition of Italian fairytale makers." —Rain Taxi.

"Paola Corso conjures a world...a humble if pinched society, down on its luck but at least rich in tradition. She honors that fact here, and then some." —The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

"Beautifully written, strong female characters, and adolescent themes will attract good readers to this little gem of a book." —Pennsylvania School Librarians' Association
